Office of the Board of Supervisors, Kingman, Mohave county, Arizona, January 2d, 1901.

The Hon. Board of Supervisors of Mohave county, Arizona, met in their office at Kingman on January 2d, 1901, as per act No. 18, 20th Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Arizona. Present, Michael Scanlan, who succeeded to the chair by operation of law, and John H. Johnson and William A. Neal, members, Clerk Jno. P. Feeny, District Attorney Hugh L. Dickinson, Sheriff Henry Lovin.

Meeting called to order. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. Clerk announces receiving all the bids as offered for county contracts for the year 1901. Board orders the same opened, first in order being that of Mrs. Mary Sweeney for furnishing meals to county prisoners for the sum of 30 cents per meal. There being no other bidder, Mrs. Sweeney was awarded the county contract.

For burying the indigent dead John W. Emerson was given the contract for the sum of thirty dollars cash, or forty dollars in county warrants for each burial. There being no other bidder Mr. Emerson was awarded the contract.

There being no bids for the conveying of the insane to Phenix, Sheriff Lovin was ordered to care for the same, his compensation to be the same as per mileage allowed conveying prisoners to territorial prison.

Bids received from the Arizona Arrow, Kingman Miner and Our Mineral Wealth, newspapers for county printing. After consideration of the several bids by the board the contract was awarded to Kean St. Charles, proprietor of our Mineral Wealth newspaper, for the sum of nine hundred and ninety nine dollars for the year.

Bids for the care of the indigent sick in the county hospital received from Dr. A. E. Ealy, A. M. Cowie, M. D., and J. W. Flynn, M. D. After consideration of the same the contract was awarded to Doctor J. W. Flynn. The District Attorney stated to the board that in his opinion the board could not grant the contract to Dr. Flynn, owing to the law in effect pertaining to said contracts for the proper care of sick indigents. It was thereupon reconsidered and the contract awarded to Dr. A. M. Cowie.

There being no other bids of any nature, the clerk was instructed to file those as received in the vault, and the District Attorney instructed to draw up the necessary contracts and bonds for the faithful performance of said contracts and for final approval by the board.

Board then adjourned for the noon recess to meet again at 2 o'clock p. m.
